The Rutgers Center for Organizational Leadership (OL) provides a portfolio of offerings for academic and administrative leaders, and graduate and medical students seeking to develop and enhance their leadership, communication, and organizational competencies.

Rutgers Center for Organizational Leadership
A national leader and resource for Rutgers University and the higher education community

---

Academic and Administrative Leadership Development

- Rutgers Leadership Academy (RLA)
- PreDoctoral Leadership Development Academy (PLDA)
- Academic Leadership Program @ RBHS
- Distinction in Leadership in Academic Healthcare
- Big10 Academic Alliance Leadership Development Programs
- Topics in Academic Leadership Seminars
- Leadership Assessment
- Leadership Competencies Development
- Organizational Assessment
- Strategic Planning
- Organizational Communication Design
- Change Planning and Implementation
- Outcomes Measurement
- Workplace Culture and Climate

---

Higher Education Leadership Research

www.ol.rutgers.edu  center@ol.rutgers.edu

---

1. Offered by the Rutgers Center for Organizational Leadership with support from the School of Graduate Studies, School of Arts and Sciences-NB, and the School of Communication and Information-NB.
2. Co-sponsored by the Rutgers Center for Organizational Leadership and Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences (RBHS).
3. Offered by Robert Wood Johnson School of Medicine in collaboration with the Rutgers Center for Organizational Leadership.
4. Coordinated through the Office of the Chancellor, Rutgers-NB.
5. Sponsored by the Rutgers Center for Organizational Leadership, School of Graduate Studies, School of Communication and Information-NB, and Office of the Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs.

The Rutgers Center for Organizational Leadership is a Division of the Office of the Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs